

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

CANADIAN SPORT PSYCHOLOGY ASSOCIATION/ ASSOCIATION CANADIENNE DE PSYCHOLOGIE DU SPORT

Student Member for the Equity, Diversity, Inclusion, and Accessibility Committee (~1-2 hours a month; one year commitment)

The Canadian Sport Psychology Association (CSPA) is seeking two student members to join the Equity, Diversity, Inclusion and Accessibility committee.

One of the missions of the CSPA is a dedication “to driving advocacy for and governance of sport and performance psychology through leadership, education, and innovation”. The EDIA committee’s responsibility is to uphold this mission through a lens of equity, diversity, inclusion, and accessibility. We are focused on creating safe spaces within the CSPA for diverse voices, persons, and viewpoints, and are working to acknowledge and educate all members.

Committee Functions

- 1) Providing guidance and recommendations to the Managing Council committee
- 2) Providing at least 2 opportunities per year for professional development for members
- 3) Providing resources as required for events/social media/meetings related to equity, diversity, inclusion, and accessibility
- 4) Collaborating with other committees as need be

Meeting Responsibilities: This committee will meet once a month between September and June. The day and time will be negotiated within the committee. Meetings will occur virtually. Notes will be taken and shared by the Chair with specific action points for the committee members.

Benefits: Given the nature of this work, continuing education points will be given for participation on this committee. Attendance and active participation in the committee is important to attain these points. Annually, the Chair will submit the names of those who have completed each year on the committee to confirm active participation.

To Apply: Please email your cover letter outlining your skills relevant to the position and what you aim to achieve in this volunteer role to Sharleen Hoar, Chair, Canadian Sport Psychology Association, info@cspa-acps.com. Please include “Student Member, EDIA Committee” in the subject line.

Deadline: Open until positions are filled.
